15TH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING – 2010

REMITs

A remit takes the form of a resolution duly proposed and seconded and can relate to any relevant subject. They usually recommend a certain course of action which must be consistent with existing rules. Any remit inconsistent with existing rules will be ruled out of order. An explanation and statement of case should be submitted with every remit.

New Zealand Federation of Motoring Clubs Inc.: Constitution Item 15

Remits are invited from any member club of this Federation.

Remit Deadline: In the hands of the Secretary by Sunday 21st March 2010 so these can be circulated to delegates prior to the AGM in Posting 2. This does not preclude matters being raised on the day or matters that arise from debate at the AGM. However such will be taken at the Chairman’s discretion in General Business – time permitting.
